Decorative Painting on Glass Tile ChinaBy Carol LNothing very exciting. No inspiration. It does give some instruction so you can do your own thing. here's 3 words

It is obvious after walking through any department store that hand-painted china and glassware are extremely popular right now. Decorative Painting on Glass, Tile and China shows painters and non-painters alike how to create a variety of charming items using new, easy-to-work-with acrylic enamels. Carol Mays explains how to work with a variety of materials, choosing a suitable surface and basic painting tips. Fifteen projects make learning easy with step-by-step photos of Carol in action. Traceable patterns and color swatches are also provided. Projects include: - Flowers on crystal stemware - Colorful country tiles for kitchens - Fruit-decorated porcelain bowls - Soft-colored leaves on a glass picture frame - Christmas place settings
