From the Inside Flap Dyeing fabric and paper adds colour and pattern in an instant, and offers endless scope for transforming plain items into desirable and inspirational projects. Using dyes and paints that are easy to use and readily available, Dyework shows you how to tailor-make home accessories in a colour palette that is both vibrant and cheerful, or soft and muted. Start with plain white silk, cotton, linen, wool, paper or thread, a few pots of dye and a chemical solution, and with ease you will be able to create fun and hand-crafted items to decorate your home. There are over 20 projects to make, using a diverse range of dye methods, from the familiar tie-dyeing, to the more random and experimental space-dyeing, spray-dyeing and dip-dyeing techniques. Learn to colour fabrics with confidence, using tried and tested recipes to achieve accurate results. Try painting reactive dyes and paints on to fabric, or block print a simple design on to a cushion cover. Once you've mastered one skill, use it as a starting point and develop your own ideas. Projects vary in complexity from simple dyed wrapping paper and a colourful book cover suitable for a beginner to tackle, to a complex embroidered and appliqued pelmet, and a patchwork tablecloth that requires confident sewing skills. Whatever your level of ability, there are projects here to suit everyone, from a cute and cuddly hot water bottle to make for a child, to a stylish throw to adorn a favourite chair and lilac beaded curtains to hang at a window. From the Back Cover-- Transform plain fabrics, threads and papers into beautiful, desirable objects with which to decorate the home-- Experiment with a whole range of fabric colouring techniques, including space-dyeing, spray-dyeing, tie-dyeing, dip-dyeing, pepperpot method, batik, and fabric painting with inks-- Projects range from simple pyramid-shape lavender bags to a vibrant paisley pelmet About the Author Judith Gussin trained as a dyeing technologist and colour chemist. She now dyes yarns, wool, cotton and silk for 21st Century Yarns, a successful textile company. Judith successfully combines her love of embroidery with her early training in colour technology and teaches workshops in both subjects.
