Six gorgeous step-by-step projects illustrate how to create vivid pictorial scenes and artistic renditions on fabric with dyes, paints, resists, leaves, salts, airbrushes, and stencils.

"acquire the skills needed to go on and create your own original-design fabrics for quilts, clothing, and household items." -- Quilter's Newsletter Magazine This inspiring book offers many techniques that result in gloriously uneven color and "texture"... Fabric painting is not rocket science! -- Popular Patchwork magazine

About the Author Well-known fiber artist Ginny Eckley is a previously published author with That Patchwork Place. She has exhibited her work in countless shows and exhibitions throughout the country. Along with travelling around the country to teach her techniques to quilt guilds and art groups, Ginny has designed large commission pieces for both retail and residential clients.
