Great Activities for the Classroom By Swift or Swim I saw this book in my local library, and decided to order one for myself. As a teacher and personal party planner (for my kids), I am always looking for fun ways to incorporate learning in a celebratory manner. There are many great theme ideas for children's activities, whether for parties or in the classroom.

From Publishers Weekly A companion to Family Fun Parties: 100 Party Plans for Birthdays, Holidays Every Day, Family Fun Boredom Busters: 365 Games, Crafts Activities for Every Day of the Year, ed. by Deanna Cook and the staff of Family Fun magazine helps while away the hours. Grouped by category (Backyard Games, Rainy-Day Play, Brain Boosters, etc.), the activities (spiral-bound inside a hardcover casing) include playing a game of Octopus Tag (#66, "a cross between red rover and tag"), staging an "Indoor Camp-Out" (#118) and performing an "Amazing Eggsperiment" (#324), which uses the laws of physics to stuff a hard-boiled egg through the neck of a milk bottle.
