By C Banks This book is good for a beginner. Gives basic shapes for different type of bird. The instructions are well written but they don't give enough detail on the birds you need a book on birds to look at pictures for more detail. If you are looking for realistic looking birds you will not find in this book. If you are just starting needle felting then it is a good starting place.

By ZCI am new to needle felting and found this book very helpful for providing ideas and step-by-step instructions. I have created several of the pieces illustrated in the book and am pleased with the results.

By Samantha McGuire This book is adorable! It has a huge variety of different types of cute birds to needlefelt and includes great quality pictures.

This adorable book shows how to make a wide variety of birds by needle felting sculpting wool roving into a three-dimensional figure using a special barbed needle. Each project includes a fun photo of the project with step-by-step instructions that result in 20 types of feathered friends! With Felted Feathered Friends, you'll learn to make endearing creatures such as:- A snowy owl- A peacock- A Great Blue Heron- A bluebird- A robin- A flamingo- A pair of lovebirds- And much more! These delightful creations will put a smile on anyone's face, and with easy-to-follow directions and the author's enthusiastic and expert guidance, anyone can take part in the feathered fun!

About the Author Laurie Sharp is a full time artist and has been needle felting for over 10 years. She raises her own sheep, shears and processes the wool for most of her projects. She has been featured on HGTV's That's Clever. From her web site www.woolpets.com, she sells needle felting kits and finished pieces as a business that has become overwhelmingly successful. Her work has been shown in a number of galleries in the Pacific Northwest. She lives in Suquamish, Washington with her husband and business partner, Kevin Sharp. Kevin is a professional photographer, and provides both beauty and how-to photography for Laurie's books.
