Carl Vandermoere : Floral Table Decoration before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Floral Table Decoration:

Carl Vandermoere has received his training in floral art in Melle, Belgium, and has gained more in-depth knowledge about the subject through several additional master years. Carl likes to work in both modern and classical interiors. Furthermore, his inspired table decoration is appreciated by several top restaurants in Belgium. He is the in-house florist at De Karmeliet, the three Michelin star restaurant in Bruges. This is why Vandermoere is more than qualified to produce a book about the floral decoration of party tables. Presented here are some amazing ways of dining: a dreamy tte.-tte, beautifully decorated party tables for weddings and First Communions, a party amongst friends, a lovely decorated restaurant table... Carl Vandermoere masters the language of refined tradition as well as surprising innovation. Photographer Bart Van Leuven shows us these floral jewels that make dining more exclusive. Text in English and Dutch.
